BREDBO PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Term 3 Week 3  Monday 27th July 2015

WHAT’S COMING UP

- School Assembly Tuesday 4th August 2.40pm
- ICAS English 28th July
- Antarctica video conference 29th July
- Maths Competition 30th July
- ICAS Maths 11th August
- Adaminaby science day Wednesday 12 August
- School Skiing—Fridays 31/7 14/8 28/8
- Jump Rope for Heart Date 9th September

SKI PROGRAM

Starts this Friday! Are you excited? Mrs This-tleton will see you all, ready to go, at the donut shop at 9.00am. Children will be dropped back to Thredboland for a 2.30pm finish. Please be there to meet them.

THE ENORMOUS PARSNIP!

So most of us would have read “The Enormous Turnip” at some point in our childhood. Well at Bredbo we had “The Enormous Parsnip!”. Our one and only surviving parsnip was excavated from the garden bed last week. According to a couple of students, it didn’t taste too bad!

Notes

PLEASE RETURN ADAMINABY NOTES ASAP
BOOK CLUB

Book club orders are due back this Friday.

ICAS

Tomorrow all senior students will undertake the ICAS English Assessment. ICAS stands for International Competitions and Assessments for Schools and these are run by the University of NSW.

Then on Thursday they will participate in the Australian Mathematics Competition sponsored by the Commonwealth Bank of Australia.

As well as being a wonderful assessment tool for teachers, these competitions are a great opportunity for students to practice sitting exam style assessments before high school and give them the opportunity to stretch themselves academically.